

Growing Church

Congregational Learning Facilitator

Presbytery of Aberdeen Congregational Support Committee

Liaise with and support ministers, elders and church members in the development and provision of congregational learning

Enable learning opportunities providing a flexible response to congregational needs identified through congregational or local church reviews in areas such as pastoral care, prayer, sharing faith

Resource and support elders before and after ordination, asking the question 'Why me?', exploring the roles of the elder as leader and pastor, looking at the development of the elder in leadership, faith sharing and leading worship, and offering team-building for an effective Kirk Session

Create and provide resources for interactive workshops on topics such as

- Pastoral Care: visiting, caring for, supporting the sick, the bereaved and the confused.
- Prayer: personal prayer, praying with others, leading prayers in worship, developing prayer in congregations
- Skills and gifts: exploring, encouraging and developing the spiritual gifts as well as natural skills such as effective listening and for congregational/session conferences or away-days

Facilitate use of a variety of materials such as national resources 'LEARN' and 'Future Focus' and local resources such as 'Tell it Naturally'

Accompany congregations through exercises such as Local Church Review, if requested

Flexible

the Congregational Learning Facilitator will tailor courses or resources to suit local needs, can work with one or more congregations on a particular task and can use various venues

Congregational Learning Facilitator Bio

I have been part of the Church of Scotland since birth, a member for 49 years, an elder for 24 years, and a Presbytery Adult Trainer for 9 years. With wide experience in small group work and a background in Adult Learning as a tutor and tutor trainer, I have also received training to deliver 'Future Focus' and 'LEARN' material through the Mission and Discipleship Council as well as attending various training conferences on subjects such as 'Spirituality in Dementia'.
